

The All-Mighty, The Most Powerful and Dignified

Al-‘Azeez is the incomparable source of all strength and might, and His power cannot be overcome or resisted. He gives honour, dignity, and strength to whomever He wills! When we say Allah is Al-‘Azeez, we mean Allah dominates, He is the One who overwhelms, and nothing can dominate Him back or get past Him. He is self-sufficient and independent, without any need.

Reflection: It's important that we have a balance between love, hope and fear when we think about Allah and gaining closeness to Him through this month and beyond.

Ibn al-Qayyim (rahimahullāh) writes, "The heart in its journey to Allah is like a bird. Love is its head, and fear and hope are its two wings." A balanced idea of Allaah is one that protects us from two extremes- neither despairing of the mercy of Allah nor feeling immune to the consequences of their sins.

Allah calls Himself Al-‘Azeez, The Almighty, The Powerful- on 92 occasions in the Quran- highlighting how important it is for us to know Him as Al-Azeez, and to internalise that. Knowing that Allah is Al-Aziz, that He's in full control at all times, is spiritually therapeutic and washes away so many of the doubts that hold us back.

AFFIRMATIONS

I stand before Allah in my salah, in awe of His Might and Power, and I acknowledge fully my weakness and need before Him.

My honour and dignity come from how closely I am aligned with what Allah loves and is pleased with, so I make that my primary goal.

I am deeply in awe of Allah, Al-Azeez for...

AYAT

"Say, 'God, holder of all control, You give control to whoever You will and remove it from whoever You will; You elevate whoever You will and humble whoever You will. All that is good lies in Your hand: You have power over everything."

[Quran 3:26]

“Say, ‘God, holder of all control, You give control to whoever You will and remove it from whoever You will; You elevate whoever You will and humble whoever You will. All that is good lies in Your hand: You have power over everything.”

[Quran 3:26]

Living with this Name:

Feed your “bird” with hope and fear:

The two fruits of knowing this name are Taqwa and Tawakkul. Taqwa, feeds the wing of fear because knowing we have a Lord who is Aziz, who is strong, powerful and mighty ensures that we check our own actions as we are accountable to Him, and so it inspires Taqwa, God-Consciousness. Tawakkul feeds the side of hope and love as we rely on Allah Subhanahu wa ta'ala, understanding that He is mighty and powerful over anyone else and that no one can compel or come in front of Him.

Seek honour through Allah alone:

If we seek honour, then we should seek it from Allah. Honour is not sought by wealth, position, beauty or intelligence, but by how much we magnify and submit to Allah. Remember the statement of Umar (RA): “Verily, we were a disgraced people and Allah honoured us with Islam. If we seek honour from anything besides that with which Allah honoured us, Allah will disgrace us.”
(al-Mustadrak ‘alá al-Ṣaḥīḥayn 207)

Develop tawakkul and Connect to The Quran as it is ‘Azeez:

Allah calls the Quran ‘Azeez. The Quran dominates, and the message of the Quran dominates and is Powerful. Nothing can beat it. Nothing can surpass it.

“O Allah! I complain to you of my weakness, my scarcity of resources and humiliation before the people. O Most Merciful of the merciful ones! You are the Lord of the oppressed, and You are my Lord too!”

(At-Tabaraani)
