

الخالق

Al-Khaaliq

The Creator, The One who brings everything from non-existence to existence.

Al-Khaaliq means The Creator, The One who brings everything from non-existence into existence. Derived from the root 'kh-l-q' (خ ل ق), it refers to the act of creating, shaping, and bringing into being. Al-Khaaliq is the One who has perfectly designed and originated the universe and everything it contains. He is the One Who has always had the attribute of being the Creator even when there was no creation in existence.

Reflection: The ayaat of Allah are His "signs" that point to His existence and lead us to Him. The two ayaat that Allaah points to are 1. His Book and 2. Ayaat or signs in His Creation, and we need to expose ourselves to both of these, in order to give life to our hearts.

Becoming blind to the creation of Allah results in becoming blind to Allah Himself. The moment we disconnect from nature is when we start disconnecting from Allah. As humans we are naturally drawn to admire beauty and be awed by the creation around us- that's why people who live in nature are able to look at this world, to be overwhelmed with its beauty, its order, its magnitude, its symmetry, and they are led to the natural conclusion, that all of this must have a creator – Al-Khaaliq. Being in and amongst nature has a humbling effect on the heart, and being far from it leads to a hardness of the heart, that can then lead to arrogance. If we don't even look at Allah's creation, reflect on it, we eventually become ungrateful to Him, and we become distant from Him. We will not realise that He is Al-Khaaliq, The Only Creator.

AFFIRMATIONS
